PLANNED DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT MINOR AMENDMENT

Minor amendments to the Initial and/or Final Development Plan of a Planned Development District may be approved by the County Planning Commission.

Minor Amendments may include:

- Any change in the size or shape of a building,
- Any increasing building height or setbacks,
- A major decrease in density,
- Any decrease in the size of required open areas,
- A minor change in the street pattern,
- Any increase in density of a subarea:
 - Less than 25% for a subarea with less than eight units.
 - Less than 15% for a subarea with nine to twenty units.
 - Less than 8% for a subarea with twenty-one units or more, or
- Any change in the number of parking spaces.

Minor amendments to the Initial Development Plan may also be made as part of the Final Development Plan approval. Any amendments shall be shown as a change on the Final Development Plan from the Initial Development Plan.

Applications for a minor amendment must include a completed application form (attached), a written description of the proposed amendment, suggested text for amendments to the district regulations, and the $50 non-refundable application fee and must be submitted by the deadline preceding a Planning Commission meeting. If the amendment entails a minor change in street patterns, or is being done as part of a final development plan, a revised plan of the development will also be required as part of the application.

The Planning Commission typically meets the fourth Monday of each month (except December and holidays). The application deadline for the meeting is 30 days before the meeting. The county must publish notice of the commission hearing in the official county newspaper. You will also be provided with a notification sign that must be posted on your property at least one week before the meeting.

At their meeting the Planning Commission will hear the background information from staff and will gather input from both proponents and opponents of the application. They will then take action to approve or deny the application.
